

:user Task

User tasks are the clearly defined steps a user needs to complete in order to solve their problems and tackle their jobs to be done

:sitemap

A user experience (UX) sitemap is a map of the various pages on your website. It's sometimes called an information architecture (IA) diagram or content outline. The purpose of the UX sitemap is to allow you to visualize how individual webpages or site sections are related to each other.

